

As you listen to the music, think about these questions:

Why do we need memories?

Why do some things evoke memories?

Why are memories important?

Our Big Question — Why do we need memories?

When the music stops we will share our thoughts by passing the holding cross.

Record below what you think is important and you want to hold on to from our MEMORIAL SACRIFICE topic.

It may be drawings, prayers and/or words from Scripture