Prayer Intention book We continue to pray for each other and for the world at this present time. We offer our prayers and thanks to all those who are working in the NHS service and indeed for all those working in essential services. We have some incredible parishioners and family members who are sacrificing their own family time to serve the sick and the dying as well as shielding the vulnerable. I have felt humbled by the dedication of so many and I offer my daily Mass with them in mind. We offer our prayers for the repose of the soul of Liz Gascoigne who has died, may she Rest in Peace, Amen.

The English Martyrs Celebrated on Monday came from every walk of life. There were rich and poor; married and single; men and women. They are remembered for the example they gave of constancy in their faith and courage in the face of persecution. From 2001, there are also celebrated on this day the forty martyrs of England and Wales who were canonized on 25 October 1970. They include Saints Cuthbert Mayne, John Houghton, Edmund Campion, and Richard Gwynn, as well as Saints John Roberts and Ambrose Barlow from the Benedictine monastery of St Gregory at Douay (now at Downside Abbey in Somerset).
